Assignments

Threaded Discussions/Threaded Debates

Threaded Discussions/Debates are a key aspect of this course allowing for you to interact with your peers concerning important issues in the field of Elementary School Curriculum Development. Your objective is to post well thought-out comments while remaining focused on the assigned discussion topics.

Written Reports/Papers

Papers and written reports should focus on your critical interpretations of significant implications of the readings. The papers should not recapitulate or summarize the readings.

Reflective Journal Entries

This is your opportunity to address issues that are important to you or raise questions specific to your particular area of interest. Entries may be guided (based on provided information) or totally independent. Running reflections on the readings, discussions, and the direction of the profession would be appropriate topics for an independent reflective journal entry.

Videos and Curriculum Challenge Critiques

Critiques of assigned videos and/or national reports, and elementary curriculum challenge questions should be concise, well thought-out, and reflective of your position on the issues as addressed.

Book Critique

This is a written critique of World Class Learners, focusing on your critical reactions and interpretations of significant implications of the authors' thesis.

Did You Know Thread

You should check this post often and respond to items that pique your interest. You may also post an issue important to you that might generate a response from classmates. Participation in this Thread is not required but highly recommended.

Students With Disabilities

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation:

<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>.

If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus disability service office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations.

Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your course as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS site at:

<https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form>.
