Catalog Description

Legislative, judicial, and administrative sources of law affecting institutions of higher education; focuses on the legal implications of administrative decision making in such institutions, issues of educational and employee equity, and strategies for avoiding legal problems.

Course Objectives

This is a graduate-level course that requires substantial reading and analysis of both the course text and the decisions of state and federal courts. The course has the following general learning goals:

1. Enable the student to understand the foundational legal principles affecting the practice of college student affairs
2. Provide the tools to equip the student to analyze a situation and identify potential legal issues
3. Enable the student to understand how to incorporate legal principles into the policy development process

Specific Learning Outcomes—Based upon ACPA/NASPA Professional Competencies

At the end of the course, the successful student should be able to:
1. Explain the basic tenets of personal or organizational risk and liability as they relate to one’s work
2. Explain the differences between public and private higher education with respect to the legal system and what they may mean for students, faculty, and staff at both types of institutions.
3. Describe the evolving legal theories that define the student–institution relationship and how they affect professional practice
4. Maintain an appropriate degree of confidentiality that follows applicable legal and licensing requirements, facilitates the development of trusting relationships, and recognizes when confidentiality should be broken to protect the student or others.

5. Describe how national constitutions and laws influence the rights that students, faculty, and staff have on public and private college campuses.

6. Explain the concepts of risk management and liability reduction strategies.

7. Explain when to consult with one’s immediate supervisor and campus legal counsel about those matters that may have legal ramifications.

8. Act in accordance with federal and state/province laws and institutional policies regarding nondiscrimination.

9. Describe how policy is developed in one’s department and institution, as well as the local, state/province, and federal levels of government.

10. Identify the major policy makers who influence one’s professional practice at the institutional, local, state/province, and federal levels of government.

11. Identify the internal and external special interest groups that influence policy makers at the department, institutional, local, state/province, and federal levels.

12. Describe the public debates surrounding the major policy issues in higher education, including access, affordability, accountability, and quality.

13. Describe the governance systems at one’s institution, including the governance structures for faculty, staff, and students.

14. Describe the system used to govern or coordinate one’s state/province system of higher education, including community college, for-profit, and private higher education.

15. Describe the federal and state/province role in higher education.

16. Explain the advantages and disadvantages of different types of decision making processes (e.g., consensus, majority vote, and decision by authority).

17. Identify and then effectively consult with key stakeholders and those with diverse perspectives to make informed decisions.

Course Requirements and Grading

The course will rely heavily on student discussion and analysis of real situations involving student affairs professionals. Students are responsible for all assigned reading and for participation in class discussion. Evaluation of students will include:

- Four short essay-type quizzes (open book, first 30 minutes of class)
  40 percent

- Research paper on topic of student’s choice (must be approved by instructor) and brief presentation to class
  40 percent

- Class participation
  20 percent

Academic Integrity Policy

The Office of Student Conduct supervises issues related to violations of academic integrity (see http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu). Please familiarize yourself with the university policy on academic integrity at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/files/documents/AI_Policy_2013.pdf

Students with Disabilities

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form.
