Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University’s educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentations: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines>. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: <https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form>.

Course Description

Learning goals:

- 1. Understanding the genre of the Teacher Film.
- 2. Classifying the essential elements that make up the genre of the teacher film: malcontent teacher, first day of school, and teacher versus administration for example.
- 3. Developing a template by which to view these teacher films and others in the future.
- 4. Conducting interviews as a way to begin discussing others’ views of these films.
- 5. Creating an original, group-produced mini-teacher film that reflects the genre.
