Course Description

Race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexual orientation, language and ability are included among the diversity issues that will be examined. It is intended that individuals will develop a (more) flexible frame of reference with an overall goal of developing multicultural competencies that allow for the delivery of culturally responsive interventions. The impact of culture on counseling process and outcome will be explored through class readings and discussions. Multicultural research will be systematically examined and critiqued.

Important Note: This syllabus, along with course assignments and due dates, are subject to change. It is the student's responsibility to check eCollege for corrections or updates to the syllabus. Any changes will be clearly noted in course announcements or through eCollege email.

Part 2: Course Objectives

It is intended that the following course objectives will be accomplished:

- Increased awareness and knowledge of cultural diversity and ethnic minority issues in counseling.
- Increased racial/ cultural self-awareness and personal-professional multicultural competence.
- Increased awareness of the sociopolitical nature of counseling interventions.
- Increased familiarity with multicultural counseling research and practice.
- Integration of theoretical models and interventions in the field of multicultural counseling and therapy (MCT).

You will meet the course objectives listed above through a combination of activities, which include active participation in on-line discussions and the timely completion of course assignments.

Course Assignments

1. Based on discussions, articles, or the news, identify a social issue/problem on a relevant topic. Be prepared to briefly discuss the issue, explaining why you selected this topic as an important social issue in today's society or global community. You will post a brief summary (100-150 words) of the social issue on eCollege (Unit 3- Social Issues). These issues will be posted on eCollege by Wednesday, June 8th.

Literature reviews must be written using APA style. Please refer to the APA Publication Manual 6th edition.

2. Identify a topic area within the multicultural literature in which to focus your research. Topics may be selected from a broad area that is included in the multicultural literature. You will indicate your topic to me for approval no later than Friday, June 10th.
3. Complete a concise research summary (750-1,000 words) on a specific area in multicultural/social justice research. The information gathered on the selected topic area will be integrated and summarized consistent with the objectives of the course. You must have a minimum of 5-7 solid references that support your research summary. Please cite the references used in the text using APA (6th edition) Publication Style. All references listed in the reference section must appear in the paper. Please familiarize yourself with the APA

Publication Manual.

Part 5: Course Policies

Attend Class

Students are expected to attend all online and face-to-face class sessions as listed on the course calendar. Attendance at face-to-face class meetings and participation in online activities is essential for the success of the hybrid experience; 30 percent of the grade is based on participation (on-line). On-line participation will be monitored by timely and relevant responses to threaded discussions.

Netiquette (Palooff & Pratt, 1999)

1. Check the discussion frequently and respond appropriately and on keep the response relevant to the discussion prompts.
2. Focus on one subject per message and use pertinent, informative, and not-too-long subject titles
3. Capitalize words only to highlight a point or for titles. Capitalizing otherwise is generally viewed as SHOUTING.
4. Be professional and careful with your online interaction
5. Cite all quotes, references, and sources.
6. It is inappropriate to forward someone else's message(s) without their permission.
7. Use humor carefully. The absence of face-to-face cues can cause humor to be misinterpreted as criticism or flaming (angry, antagonistic criticism).

Build Rapport

If you find that you have any trouble keeping up with assignments or other aspects of the course, make sure you let me know as early as possible. Make sure that you are proactive in informing me when difficulties arise during the semester so that we can work together to find a solution.

Complete Assignments

All assignments for this course will be submitted on-line or via email- Details will be provided prior to due date. Assignments must be submitted by the given deadline or special permission must be requested before the due date. Extensions will not be given beyond the next assignment except under extreme circumstances.

All discussion assignments must be completed by the assignment due date and time. Late or missing discussion assignments will lower your grade.

Commit to Integrity

As a student at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class. It is important that you become aware of the Rutgers Policy on Academic Integrity and the University Code of Student Conduct.
